1. COOKIES EN LEGALIFY.

At Legalify we collect information through the use of a technology called “cookies” to make your experience on the website optimal. Below we will explain how cookies work on our website.

2. WHAT IS A COOKIE?

When you connect to the Internet, you use a program called a “browser” (e.g. Apple’s Safari or Google’s Chrome). Most websites store a small amount of text in the browser and that piece of text is called a “cookie”.

Its usefulness is that the website can remember your visit when you return to browse that page, which can facilitate your next visit and make the website more useful to you. Thus, cookies seek to adapt the content of the website to your profile and needs.

Cookies generally store technical information, user’s personal preferences, content customization, statistics and usage analysis, links to social networks, access to user accounts, among other things. Thanks to these we can personalize the income to the web in future visits, make your navigation safer, know your preferences to offer you information that is of your interest, as well as measure the traffic of our web.

Without the presence of cookies, your experience while browsing a site would be frustrating and the services offered by the website would be affected.

6. RECIPIENTS OF PERSONAL DATA OBTAINED THROUGH COOKIES.

As noted above, our website stores cookies from third party providers outside Legalify, therefore, it is important that you know the identity of these third parties, taking into account that they could access the information that their cookies collect on our website:

- Google Inc., located at 1600 Amphitheatre Parkway Mountain View, California, United States.
- Meta Platforms, Inc. (formerly, Facebook Inc.), located at 1601 Willow Road Menlo Park, California, United States.

7. HOW CAN I CONFIGURE COOKIES IN MY BROWSER?

At any time, you can exercise your right to disable, block or delete cookies from our website or other Legalify services. Therefore, if you do not agree with the use of cookies set out in this policy, in addition to the options of acceptance or rejection that we provide when you enter our website, you can block cookies or activate the do not track option. To do so, we ask you to pay attention to the following indications:

- Your browser probably offers you options for cookies. For example, most browsers allow you to block "third party cookies," which are cookies from sites other than the one you are visiting. These options differ from browser to browser, so check the settings of the browser you are using for more information.
- In the case of Google, you can go to the Chrome address bar and click on the padlock icon at the top. Then, click on the "Cookies" option and select the cookie you wish to block or remove.
- On the other hand, some browsers also include a "Do Not Track" privacy setting. This setting is an alternative that allows you to decide whether you want us to use information from our partners and other services to customize our website to your liking.

- You can also choose to delete your browsing data (including cookies) from your own browser. DO not forget to consult the options and instructions offered by your browser to do so.

If you need help in configuring your browser's cookie settings, please do not hesitate to contact us by sending an e-mail to the following address [\[redacted\]](#). We will contact you as soon as possible with the necessary information.

8. WARNING ABOUT COOKIE SETTINGS.

You should be aware that some cookies help to make your experience on our website unique (personalization cookies), as well as are essential for the proper functioning of our website (technical cookies) and their deactivation or blocking would frustrate your navigation on Legalify and your experience on our website would not be optimal.

Also, this decision may affect the security of your personal data if you disable or block security cookies.

9. CONSENT TO THE USE OF COOKIES.

By accepting this Cookie Policy, you agree with all the aspects set out in this document and authorize us to use the cookies previously developed, including third party advertising cookies, in accordance with the purposes indicated, unless you decide to configure them, in which case your consent will be revoked.

10. WITHDRAWAL OF COOKIES CONSENT.

You may contact us to exercise your right to cancel the cookies you consider relevant.

To do so, you should contact us at [\[redacted\]](#), specifying your request about the measures that Legalify should take with respect to your personal data.

We will respond to your request via the email address you have provided. In case it is not possible to respond to such request due to lack of information or accuracy, you will be informed of the situation as soon as possible.

11. VALIDITY AND UPDATES OF THIS COOKIE POLICY.

Legalify reserves the right to modify this Policy based on legislative or regulatory requirements, its own criteria, or in order to adapt this policy to the instructions or criteria issued by the corresponding personal data protection authority.

If any changes are made to this Policy, the new text will be posted on our website <https://www.legalify.app/#> and your agreement to such changes will be requested again.
